

Education Awards 2006

The Worshipful Company of Lightmongers supports and encourages students with prizes and bursaries on approved educational courses. This report relates to awards for LET sponsored courses - see the Lightmongers website for a schedule of all the awards they offer [www.lightmongers.org.uk]. The Master Lightmonger, Mr John Otten, presided at their Livery Dinner on 31st March 2006 when the first of the 2006 awards, in the form of cheques and certificates, were presented.

Elga Niemann, who works for Building Design Partnership, received the Lightmongers Millar Award for 'outstanding achievement' on the Light & Lighting MSc at The Bartlett, UCL.

Elga Niemann with the Master Lightmonger

Hannah Wardle received the Lightmongers Bursary for a self funding student on the Light & Lighting MSc at The Bartlett, UCL.

Hannah Wardle with the Master Lightmonger

John Gooden, an electrical contractor, was awarded the Robert Moss/Lightmongers Bursary for a student paying his own way through the LET Diploma in Lighting course at London South Bank University. The Master Lightmonger presented the award to John on 9th May.

John Gooden with the Master Lightmonger